

Greenville County Schools Enrollment Documentation Checklist for Parents

NOTES: Original documents are required at time of enrollment; photocopies and partial pages may be unacceptable.
Students enrolling at a school other than the homebase school must have an approved reassignment prior to enrolling.

Parent/Legal Guardianship Verification

Parent or Legal Guardian must accompany student to begin the enrollment process. Another adult (stepparent, grandparent, etc.) can stay to complete the process.

- Government Issued Photo ID
- Divorce/Separation Documents, if parents have divorced
- Court-Ordered Guardianship Papers, if applicable (A notarized statement from parent or legal guardian is not sufficient.)

Proof of Residency

At least two documents from the following list are required. Some schools may require more than two.

- Current electric and/or gas bill displaying service address and a billing date within past 30 days (you can bring 2 utility bills)
- Closing statement or current mortgage statement for primary residence showing property address (not mailing address)
- Current signed lease agreement with name and phone of landlord
- Most recent state or federal income tax return
- Current paid tax receipt on real estate owned by parent/legal guardian
- Property tax form requesting homestead exemption
- Current statement from DSS or other governmental agency which proves residency of the parent/legal guardian
- Current paycheck stub with address of residence
