Business Careers Awareness Program (BCAP)

The Wachovia Scholars Business at Moore (BAM) program is a challenging one-week summer program designed to introduce high-achieving, under-represented students to the study of business related fields at the University of South Carolina. Ultimately, after having a positive experience with us, we hope that these students will enroll at the University of South Carolina as freshman in the Moore School of Business.

In order to assist us in choosing our best BAM candidates, we request that you please rate the above named student on the following characteristics to the best of your knowledge/ability.
