

Gateway Science Fair Due Dates

January 2010

22nd – Introduce project to students in science lab today!

February 2010

3rd - Idea for project due to classroom teacher (paper form). Classroom teachers should evaluate them to make sure they can be measured and tested correctly.

5th -

- Idea for project evaluated in science lab today!
- Independent, Dependent, Controlled Variables, and Question created in Science Lab today
- Begin your experiment at home! The testing should be finished on the 26th of Feb. Begin early and finish early ☺ Please do not put it off until the last minute.

26th – Completed testing data table due to classroom teacher today (rough draft) Work on tables/graphs in classroom or at home this week and next

March 2010

3rd - Data Table and Graphs due to classroom teacher (rough draft on notebook paper)

5th – Bring Data table and rough draft of graphs to the science lab and Mrs. Crane will print a colored version for you – Today Only!

You must have your rough draft turned in by today to participate!

10th -

- Conclusion due to classroom teacher
- Students begin typing projects in class or at home. Start on it early ☺ The final project is due March 24th.

12th - Boards/Labels are distributed in science lab today for those that have paid $5.

24th – All Projects due to classroom teacher today!

26th - All projects judged during related arts today at Gateway to determine School winners.

April 2010

20th – School Level Winning Projects set-up for District Competition at Carolina First Center - Judging 4-8:30pm

21st – School Level Winning Projects on public display at the Carolina First Center from 10am-5pm

27th – Awards Ceremony for District Competition 7:15-8:15 pm at Roper Mountain Science Center