Web Copyright Notice

All material on The School District of Greenville County's web site is copyrighted (©) by either the District or by the author.

This copyright notice is designed to protect the District and our readers from unintended copyright violations. We hope that our sites are used openly and actively as sources of information and ideas for our colleagues around the world.

As an educational institution, we recognize the need to share information among schools and districts. Much of our information is published so that other districts can learn and borrow from what we have done. We also acknowledge and sincerely appreciate the help we have received from other schools and institutions.

Permissions to use our material

Educational Use

We extend the following permissions to schools, districts, or other educational institutions that wish to use material from our web sites:

1. Links to any document, whether signed or unsigned, on any of The School District of Greenville County web sites are freely permitted and encouraged;
2. Any unsigned documents may be reproduced in whole or in part unless otherwise noted.
3. Documents containing the byline or signature remain the copyrighted material of the author(s) (students, parents, or staff members) and may not be reproduced in any media in whole or in part without specific written permission from the author. However, you may link to these documents.
4. Graphic images at our sites are created by District authors, purchased from clip art collections, or copied from public-domain archives. Please contact the District Webmaster at webmaster@greenville.k12.sc.us before using any graphics from our site.
