GREENVILLE SENIOR HIGH ACADEMY OF LAW, FINANCE AND BUSINESS

DUAL CREDIT

GREENVILLE TECH EARLY COLLEGE

- Meets two days a week (8:00 – 9:30 am) for one semester
- May take 1 – 4 classes per year
- Must be a junior or senior
- ASSET/Compass entrance exam required
- Students must pay tuition and textbooks
- Course grades will be included on college transcripts
- Counts as an AP course when calculating GPA
- Follows high school grading scale (93-100/A, etc.)
  FERPA laws prevent professors from contacting parents
- By law, all state colleges and universities must accept these courses. Contact private/out-of-state institutions specifically to inquire about transfer credit.

Courses offered:
ART 101 - Art History and Appreciation
CPT 170 - Introduction to Computers
PSY 201 – General Psychology
SOC 101 - Introduction to Sociology

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

- Teacher Cadet Course
- No tuition but students must purchase textbooks
- Contact specific colleges to inquire about transfer credit.

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

- Meets everyday during an afternoon class period
- Will take all four classes during the school year
- Must be a junior or senior
- No entrance exam required
- Virtual class taken in classroom with school aide
- No tuition but students must purchase textbooks
- $10 application fee for course
- Course grades will be included on college transcripts
- Counts as an AP course when calculating GPA
- Follows high school grading scale (93-100/A, etc.)
  FERPA laws prevent professors from contacting parents
- Contact specific colleges to inquire about transfer credit.

Courses offered:
RETL 261 - Functional Accounting 1
The accounting cycle as it relates to retail and service businesses.
RETL 262 - Functional Accounting 2
The accounting cycle as it relates to retail and service businesses.
Prerequisites: RETL 261
ITEC 264 - Computer Applications in Business 1
Survey of the core skills and techniques used in modern business applications, including spreadsheets and databases.
MGSC 290 - Computer Information Systems in Business
An introduction to the effective use of information systems tools in day-to-day business communications, analysis, and decision making.