

Register today! Spring 2012 Graduate Recertification Classes

3 hour Graduate credit, The College of Charleston

All graduate classes will be $450

EDPD 805-G60 "Developing an Understanding of the Impact of Socio-economics on Student Achievement": teaching children of poverty. No text is required, no tests. Tours, speakers, lots of discussion and sharing with project of five lessons that would help those poverty children achieve success. Class meets each Tuesday, Jan.31-May 8, 2012, 4-7 pm, Sullivan Center

EDPD 807 X60 "Strategies for Working with At-Risk Boys": learning strategies to work with at-risk boys in the classroom. Text, "The Minds of Boys" is required. No tests. Great discussion with project of 5 lessons and 2 games that could be used in teaching at-risk boys. Interviewing young inmates at Perry Correctional is included. Class meets each Thursday, Jan.26- May 3, 2012, 4-7 pm, Sullivan Center

EDPD 815 F60, "Bullying in Schools" On line with Moodle, Studying bullying laws and school programs. Text is required, "The Bully, the Bullied, and the Bystander". Designing a bullying program for your own school is required. No tests. All work is posted on line. Attending the first class at Sullivan Center is required. First class, Monday, Jan.30 and work due by April 30, 2012

How to hold your seat in class:

By Mail: Mail completed form along with payment of $25 to: Lifelong Learning, 206 Wilkins Street, Greenville, SC 29605, Attn: Terry Culbertson

Make checks out to Lifelong Learning

Stop by: Lifelong Learning or contact Terry at 355-6095 or tculbert@greenville.k12.sc.us
Please mark the class you are registering for or list it on the bottom on this registration form

Graduate Recertification Classes, Spring, 2012
(Instructions for the College of Charleston on-line "official" registration as a student will be emailed to you)
Last Name:	First Name:
Address:	*School or home email:
City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
Phone: (H) _____ (W) _____ (C) _____	Fees: $ 25 deposit + $425
Class Title:	Total $450 per class