

Bulletin 1

Claflin University Upward Bound Math and Science Program

Claflin University's Pursuing Rewards In Science and Mathematics (PRISM) program is accepting applications for students who are interested in pursuing careers related to science and math. The six-week residential program includes an intensified summer curriculum that increases the participants' knowledge base and enhances awareness of career opportunities in science and math. All participants will receive a weekly stipend, room and board, and round trip transportation to Claflin. Applications are available in guidance and are due March 7, 2012.

2012 Wells Fargo Business at Moore Summer (BAM) Program

This free week long summer residency program is designed to introduce students to a variety of business fields, experience campus life at the Darla Moore School of Business at the University of South Carolina, and provide opportunities to earn a scholarship to USC. High achieving, current juniors/rising senior minority students may apply. The program is scheduled for June 16 – 22, 2012. Applications are available in guidance and are due no later than March 16, 2012.

Furman University Emerging Public Leaders Program

This week long program is offered to a select group of rising high school seniors who want to get involved and make a difference in the world. Features include sessions with local, state, and national government leaders as well as members of the faculty of Furman's Department of Political Science. Students attend lectures, participate in off-campus field trips, and interact with speakers and faculty in small groups. Housed on the Furman campus, if selected, the cost of the program is free. Interested students should complete an application online at riley.furman.edu. Applications are due by April 2, 2012.

South Carolina Business Week

This premier program of the SC Chamber of Commerce provides students with a practical study of entrepreneurship and American private enterprise. Students form mock companies and compete to make their company the most profitable. Students who have completed their sophomore, junior or senior year during the spring of 2012 may apply to participate. All students who are accepted are given a scholarship to cover expenses except the $50 registration fee. The event is held the week of July 15 – 20 at Presbyterian College. Apply online at www.scbusinessweek.com. The application deadline is April 13, 2012.