

For Immediate Release
November 24, 2009

Oakview and Grove Elementary Schools Win 2009 Red Ribbon Banner Contest

Oakview Elementary (1st Place) and Grove Elementary (2nd Place) were named winners of Greenville Family Partnership's 2009 "Red Ribbon Banner & Poster Contests".

Every year, Greenville Family Partnership sponsors a county-wide banner and statewide poster contest to encourage students to demonstrate their creativity and reaffirm their decision to live a healthy, safe, and drug-free lifestyle. All Greenville County Schools were asked to submit a 4" x 6" color photo of their Red Ribbon Banner in the "Red Ribbon Banner Competition." Winning schools received a trophy and visit from Greenville Family Partnership staff.

Cameron McCracken, a 4th grader at Skyland Elementary, won 1st Place in the poster contest for students in the K-4 division.

Greenville Family Partnership/Red Ribbon Works is a non-profit, 501(c) 3 community organization founded in 1984 to "keep kids off tobacco, alcohol, and other drugs by educating and partnering with families and the community.

###