New Year's Resolutions for PTA

I hope everyone had a great holiday season and that your new year is off to a great start!

As we start a new calendar year, we are reminded that we are half-way through the school year. A lot has happened at Oakview and many activities are still planned for the spring of 2012! I encourage all of you to resolve to find the best way for you personally to volunteer at Oakview. Just a few of the volunteer opportunities outside the classroom that are available this spring include the spring book fair, the cultural festival, and our first annual Boosterthon. Information on all of these events are in this issue of the Acorn and are posted on the website.

PTA is an all volunteer organization. If you have considered becoming more involved in PTA board positions or committees, please take some time to review the duties of the various board and committee positions and seriously consider serving next school year. Many of the current committee chairs and officers would be happy to discuss what they do and help you determine if it's a great "fit" for you. PTA thrives and improves with diverse members and diverse board members. If you have any specific questions regarding service on the board, please don't hesitate to contact me or another board member. The nominating committee is getting ready to start its work and needs your help. If you'd like to serve on the Nominating committee or if you are interested in being considered for a board or committee position, please contact Nicole Westmoreland. PTA works because of involved parents like you!

Volunteers

Mindy Kupec and Nicole Westmoreland, Co-Chairs

I can no other answer make, but, thanks, and thanks. William Shakespeare

Welcome back! It's a New Year and time to get back into the volunteer mode. We hope everyone had a fantastic break and were able to spend some relaxing time with friends and family. It's hard to believe the school year is half over!

Because of your volunteer efforts so far this year:

- Children who have difficulty reading are getting the extra reading help they need
- Our teachers are getting a much needed break at lunch
- A child was able to purchase something for a special person at the Elf Shelf

- Books and toys were collected for needy children
- Hootenanny and all of our fundraisers were a HUGE success!

Because of YOU we have accomplished these things and so much more!

Soon our Nominating Committee will be chosen and they will be notifying parents about volunteer opportunities for the 2012-2013 school year. You would be amazed at the number of volunteers that work to benefit our children. Be on the lookout for PTA Board Job Descriptions posted on our website, to give you a better idea about specific committees/positions. You may surprise yourself and find a committee that could benefit from your involvement! Please consider being a part of the PTA Board at Oakview and share in making a difference in our school.

Please feel free to contact Nicole Westmoreland nicolew1@charter.net or Mindy Kupec at mindykupec@gmail.com if you have any questions about volunteer opportunities.

Thank you for making "school cool" at Oakview!

Box Tops

Christi Yenser and Danielle Colby, Co-Chairs

The Box Tops Bonanza is just around the corner in February, but please send your Box Tops in now. Any Box Tops you submit now will be counted towards your child's classroom totals for the big bonanza. Please be sure to put your Box Tops in a sealed bag or envelope with your teacher's name as well as your child's name on the outside. We have received several open bags (which result in loose Box Tops mixed in with all the others) and many bags with no teacher listed. The contest gets very close – every Box Top counts. So, please make sure your child's class gets the credit they deserve.

More details about the Box Tops Bonanza will be sent home in February. Until then, keep on clipping! Encourage grandparents, other family members, and friends to get involved, too. If they have the product in their house, they usually don't mind cutting out the Box Top if it helps the school.

State Legislature Working on Public Education Issues

The South Carolina state legislature started its 2012 session on January 10 and will conclude the first week in June. As during every session of the legislature, issues and funding impacting our public schools will be decided.

The legislature will be determining the amount of state public education funding for the coming school year. Since the state provides about 60% of the funding to operate our schools, what they decide matters a great deal to our school district. It directly impacts their ability to lower class sizes, support the full range of academic and extra-curricular programs parents expect and provide pay raises for teachers and school administrators.

During this session, the legislature is also expected to work on other legislation affecting our schools. This includes deciding whether to allow charter school students to participate in sports and other extra-curricular activities at the public schools they are zoned to attend. They will also likely make changes to the state retirement system which is underfunded. All school employees participate in the state retirement system and will be impacted by legislation passed on this issue.

Tuition tax credit/school voucher legislation has been introduced in the legislature five out of the last six years. In every instance it has been defeated. However, it's very possible that another form of this legislation will be introduced in this session of the legislature. This type of legislation would provide state financial support for children to attend private schools and for home schooling.

For more information on these and other issues impacting our public schools, go to www.pepgc.org and click on "Public Policy."

Did you Know?

The primary way the state funds our public schools is by funding the "base student cost." The base student cost is a per pupil amount based on a 1977 definition of what it costs to provide an adequate education for South Carolina students. The legislature has fully funded the base student cost in only 8 of the law's 36 years and in only 3 of the last 10 years.
