MEMORANDUM

TO: District Superintendents

FROM: Mick Zais, State Superintendent of Education

DATE: October 7, 2011

SUBJECT: Free Access to ACT, PSAT, SAT, and AP Exam Reviews

The Office of eLearning in the Division of School of Effectiveness is pleased to offer free access to ACT, PSAT, SAT, and AP Exam Reviews for any South Carolina student who wishes to prepare for one or more of these exams during the 2011-12 school year. This includes public school, charter school, private school and home school students. Please review this service and consider how it might be best used to support students in your district.

Educators, students and parents can gain access to the reviews at <http://scvspconnect.ed.sc.gov/>. Simply click on the Course Information tab and then the Test Preparation tab.

If you have questions concerning this initiative, please contact Mark A. Bounds, Deputy Superintendent for School Effectiveness. If you have technical questions please contact Courtney Foster, administrative assistant for the South Carolina Virtual School Program at cpfoster@ed.sc.gov or 803-734-8039.
