ASSURANCES FOR SCHOOL PLAN

Act 135 Assurances

Assurances, checked by the principal, attest that the school complies with all applicable Act 135 requirements.

- ✓ Academic Assistance, PreK–3
The school makes special efforts to assist children in PreK–3 who demonstrate a need for extra or alternative instructional attention (e.g., after-school homework help centers, individual tutoring, and group remediation).
- ✓ Academic Assistance, Grades 4–12
The school makes special efforts to assist children in grades 4–12 who demonstrate a need for extra or alternative instructional attention (e.g., after-school homework help centers, individual tutoring, and group remediation).
- ✓ Parent Involvement
The school encourages and assists parents in becoming more involved in their children’s education. Some examples of parent involvement initiatives include making special efforts to meet with parents at times more convenient for them, providing parents with their child’s individual test results and an interpretation of the results, providing parents with information on the district’s curriculum and assessment program, providing frequent, two way communication between home and school, providing parents an opportunity to participate on decision making groups, designating space in schools for parents to access educational resource materials, including parent involvement expectations as part of the principal’s and superintendent’s evaluations, and providing parents with information pertaining to expectations held for them by the school system, such as ensuring attendance and punctuality of their children.
- ✓ Staff Development
The school provides staff development training for teachers and administrators in the teaching techniques and strategies needed to implement the school/district plan for the improvement of student academic performance. The staff development program reflects requirements of Act 135, the EAA, and the National Staff Development Council’s revised Standards for Staff Development.
- ✓ Technology
The school integrates technology into professional development, curriculum development, and classroom instruction to improve teaching and learning.
- ✓ Innovation
The school uses innovation funds for innovative activities to improve student learning and accelerate the performance of all students. Provide a good example of the use of innovation funds.
- ✓ Collaboration
The school (regardless of the grades served) collaborates with health and human services agencies (e.g., county health departments, social services departments, mental health departments, First Steps, and the family court system).

- ✓ Developmental Screening
The school ensures that the young child receives all services necessary for growth and development. Instruments are used to assess physical, social, emotional, linguistic, and cognitive developmental levels. This program normally is appropriate at primary and elementary schools, although screening efforts could take place at any location.
- ✓ Half-Day Child Development
The school provides half-day child development programs for four-year-olds (some districts fund full-day programs). The programs usually function at primary and elementary schools, although they may be housed at locations with other grade levels or completely separate from schools.
- ✓ Developmentally Appropriate Curriculum for PreK–3
The school ensures that the scope and sequence of the curriculum for PreK–3 are appropriate for the maturation levels of students. Instructional practices accommodate individual differences in maturation level and take into account the student's social and cultural context.
- ✓ Parenting and Family Literacy
The school provides a four component program that integrates all of the following activities: interactive literacy activities between parents and their children (Interactive Literacy Activities); training for parents regarding how to be the primary teachers for their children and full partners in the education of their children (parenting skills for adults, parent education); parent literacy training that leads to economic self-sufficiency (adult education); and an age-appropriated education to prepare children for success in school and life experiences (early childhood education). Family Literacy is not grade specific, but generally is most appropriate for parents of children at the primary and elementary school levels and below, and for secondary school students who are parents. Family Literacy program goals are to strengthen parent involvement in the learning process of preschool children ages birth through five years; promote school readiness of preschool children; offer parents special opportunities to improve their literacy skills and education, a chance to recover from dropping out of school; and identify potential developmental delays in preschool children by offering developmental screening.
- ✓ Recruitment
The school makes special and intensive efforts to recruit and give priority to serving those parents or guardians of children, ages birth through five years, who are considered at-risk of school failure. “At-risk children are defined as those whose school readiness is jeopardized by any of, but no limited to, the following personal or family situation(s): Educational level of parent below high school graduation, poverty, limited English proficiency, significant developmental delays, instability or inadequate basic capacity within the home and/or family, poor health (physical, mental, emotional) and/or child abuse and neglect.

✓ Coordination of Act 135 Initiatives with Other Federal, State, and District Programs

The school ensures as much program effectiveness as possible by developing a district-wide/school-wide coordinated effort among all programs and funding. Act 135 initiatives are coordinated with programs such as Head Start, First Steps, Title I, and programs for students with disabilities.

Introduction/Stakeholder Groups Involvement

All stakeholders are involved with our strategic improvement plan. The staff, along with parents and the School Improvement Council (SIC), is represented on most of our strategic improvement teams. Input is sought from partnerships with businesses and community groups, university professors, district level consultants, and students. Information is dispersed to all stakeholders through the School Improvement Council, PTA, school assemblies, school newsletter, local newspapers, and school website.

Executive Summary

Student Achievement

As a result of the self-study process we will continue to meet the needs of a diverse learning group. Based on test data there is a strong need for the continued instruction of phonemic awareness and reading comprehension strategies. In addition our test data indicates a need to address the achievement gap for our minority, special education and subsidized lunch populations.

Teacher and Administrator Quality

We have a highly qualified staff that is continuously involved in professional development programs in the areas of technology and curriculum. Teachers work together in professional learning communities to improve content and delivery of lessons. In order to complete the transition to a balanced literacy program modeled after the Fountas and Pinnell approach, we will continue professional development to enrich the reading program.

School Climate

The school climate is very positive. We have implemented PBIS type activities and Early Act First Knight to help keep the school climate positive and productive. We have programs before and after school to benefit our students and help improve the school climate, but we are aware of the continuing need to purposefully work at maintaining and improving a positive school climate.

Significant Challenges

- The increasing number of students who are not English proficient is one challenge our school faces.
- The transient population as students move in and out of our attendance area is another significant challenge.
- Although our poverty index puts seventy percent of our population at the poverty level, we do not receive Title I funding and have to rely on grants to purchase supplemental materials.
- Many of our parents work and find it difficult to volunteer because of their work schedules.

Significant Accomplishments

- Red Carpet Award Winner
- Five National Board Certified staff members
- Staff member who twice received Who's Who Among American Teachers
- Golden Apple Award presented by the WYFF television station to one kindergarten teacher and one third grade teacher
- After school academic program

- Satisfactory rating by students, parents, and staff on yearly survey
- Extracurricular opportunities including safety patrols, Junior Beta Club, chorus, Robotics club, and book clubs
- Staff member who was 2nd runner-up for District Teacher of the Year
- Staff member who was chosen as a Furman Fellow for the Leadership Program sponsored by the school district
- Palmetto Silver Award for Closing the Gap
- Energy Star Rated Facility Award

School Profile

School Community

Previously, Robert E. Cashion Elementary was known as East Gantt Elementary, which had operated as a kindergarten through fifth grade elementary school since the 1940's. After the 2002-2003 school year, Mr. Robert E. Cashion retired and a new school was built in a new location (approximately 4 miles away from the previous building). The new school was named after Mr. Cashion, the former principal of East Gantt.

Robert E. Cashion Elementary School is now a K4 through grade five public school built in 2003. It is located behind Donaldson Center, a business park in southern Greenville County. Our school has made several contacts with the businesses within this community. Bonnie Brae Golf Course is approximately half a mile away from our school. Mauldin and Simpsonville are two heavily populated and fast growing communities within ten minutes of the school.

We have an active PTA program that helps make decisions on various levels. They support the school with their time, energy and finances. Parents are also an integral part of our volunteer program and serve as chaperones and room parents for classes.

The staff of Robert E. Cashion School believes that our community and students' families work in cooperation with our staff to help our children succeed. Our school has been fortunate in having community partners; however, we plan to increase involvement in the future through additional partnerships with local church groups and businesses. Robert E. Cashion parents and family members are encouraged to become involved in school activities through PTA membership. Volunteers currently support our school by assisting with working in the media center, supporting classroom teachers, tutoring, chaperoning field trips, raising funds, and working in our school store.

Community members and business partners currently involved with our school are: 3-M Corporation, African American Network of Michelin, South Greenville Fire Department, Kiwanis Club, Greenville Evening Rotary Club, Publix, Reedy Fork Greenville church, Wendy's, and Papa John's.

Robert E. Cashion also benefits from having mentors from 3M work with our students.

School Leaders

Principal - Ryan Streetman

Mr. Streetman was born and raised in Simpsonville, South Carolina. He graduated from Hillcrest High School in 1995 and after graduation he attended Erskine College where he graduated in 1999 with a Sports Management degree. However, before graduation he decided he wanted to pursue a career in Elementary education. He then enrolled at Lander University where he graduated in 2002 with a degree in Elementary Education. His teaching career began at Fountain Inn Elementary, where he taught for 8 years in both 4th and 5th grade. After earning his Masters in Supervision and Leadership from Clemson University, he started his administrative career at Ralph Chandler Middle where he served as the administrative assistant for 3 years. He spent one year at Simpsonville Elementary as the Assistant Principal and another year at Plain Elementary before being appointed principal of Robert E. Cashion Elementary School in 2015.

In his second year as principal at Robert E. Cashion Elementary, Mr. Streetman continues to strive for continuous improvement in all areas of the school.

Mr. Streetman believes that children need to be educated in a positive environment where all stakeholders are working together as a team to ensure success for every child. His philosophy has been summarized in a quote from Henry Ford; “Coming Together is a Beginning, Keeping Together is Progress, Working Together is Success.” He also believes that we, as educators, must continue to learn in order to better meet the needs of the students we now serve.

Beyond school life, he is dedicated to his wife and three children, Emma, Charlie, and Murphy.

Data Analysis and Needs Assessment

Student Achievement Needs Assessment

- As a result of the self-study process we will continue to meet the needs of a diverse learning group. Based on test data there is a strong need for the continued instruction of phonemic awareness and reading comprehension strategies. In addition, our test data indicates a need to address the achievement gap for our minority and subsidized lunch populations.
- To address the academic needs of our students, the teachers at Robert E. Cashion use a variety of researched based and district endorsed programs including: Fountas and Pinnell Balanced Literacy, RTI Early Intervention Program, and Every Day Counts Calendar Math.
- Performance and improvement is hard track in ELA and Math due to the changing of the test in the past few years from PASS (2013 and 2014) to ACT Aspire (2015) to SCReady (2016). Categories and percentiles do not translate equally between tests.

ELA

The percentage of students not meeting standard was significantly higher in fifth grade.

Math

The percentage of students scoring exceeding standard was lower in fifth grade.

Science

The percentage of students scoring Met or Exemplary is significantly higher in fourth grade.

Social Studies

The percentage of student scoring Not Met in fifth grade is significantly higher.

Next Steps

Our focus is to shift student achievement from Not Met to Exceeding and Exemplary levels. We would like to see a decrease in the number of students scoring Not Met and an increase in the number of students scoring Exceeding and Exemplary.

- Use a variety of assessment strategies including rubrics, teacher-made tests, student work samples, anecdotal records, and cooperative partnerships to accommodate all students' learning styles. Analyze the effectiveness of these strategies.
- Use differentiated instruction to meet the needs of all student levels and learning styles.
- Continue to use essential questions to guide instruction.
- Continue to develop common assessments and common planning across grade levels.
- Increase staff awareness on how different socioeconomic levels affect learning and relationships.
- Continue to implement strategies learned and shared from skills acquired in graduate courses, workshops, in-services, and peer observations.
- Teach students how to analyze their own scores and set appropriate individual learning goals.
- Continue to increase technological opportunities to enhance instruction across all curriculum areas.

Teacher and Administrator Quality

Professional development activities are ongoing and focus on relevant issues and current research in education. Information gathered from standardized test results, individual teacher evaluations, School Improvement Council, State Department of Education and parent surveys, are summarized and then presented at faculty meetings or via email. Priorities are determined, and then, through shared decision making, a school specific plan for professional development is completed. Staff development activities for the 2016-2017 school year included Fountas and Pinnell balanced literacy, NEW Google Sites webpage design. grade level planning to foster collaboration, data teams analyzing common assessments, improving science instruction, using available technology to increase student engagement, and addressing problematic student behaviors with Amanda Turner. Professional development was provided to the staff during faculty meetings through sharing expertise within particular curriculum areas. We also did a faculty book study on The DATA Teams Experience to address the need to analyze common assessments throughout the school year to identify students who need reteaching in order to master certain skills.

School Climate Needs Assessment

The school climate is overall positive. We have implemented the Early Act First Knight program in our school to help keep the school climate positive and productive. We have programs before and after school to benefit our students and help improve the school climate, but we are aware of the continuing need to purposefully work at maintaining and improving a positive school climate. We are diligently working at communication with parents.
