Introduction

The Greer Middle School portfolio was developed to document the changes and progress our school has made while working to continuously improve everything we do. The portfolio provides our staff with an ongoing means for self-assessment, communication, continuous improvement, and accountability.

This school portfolio is a living document that describes Greer Middle School and includes evidence of our work. It describes who we are, our vision for the school, goals, plans, progress, and achievements in the context of student demographics and needs. The portfolio also describes how we build and utilize our overall school plan for the purpose of increasing student learning—our ultimate outcome. Much of the narrative content came from discussions of the staff in the process of evaluating our work. Our School Improvement Council and members of our PTSA also contributed parent data and input to this process.

School Profile

Description of School Community

- History of Greer Middle: Greer Middle School was built in 1971. It replaced Davenport Jr. High, which had burned. Davenport Jr. High was located in the former Greer High School facility on Church Street in downtown Greer. Greer Middle School was established as a modern facility with open classrooms. Students were assigned to learning communities within the school, based on the Piedmont Schools Project. The student population grew to over 1300 in the nineties making it necessary to use the little theater for a learning center. Many portable classrooms were brought in during the eighties to accommodate the rapidly growing community of Greer.

In the mid 1990s, the BMW plant was built on the outskirts of Greer, bringing with it hundreds of new families. This began an economic upswing that continues to have an impact on the schools in our area. The Greenville County School District Board of Trustees recognized the need for new schools in the Greer area. The plan included an additional school to handle the abundance of new Greer residents' children, thus the new Greer Middle and Riverside Middle Schools were built.

The 1998-99 school year was a challenge for Greer Middle staff and students. Renovations to the old Greer Middle building began in the spring of 1998 while the staff tried to finish the school year. The Chandler Road facility was totally evacuated two weeks after school was over for the year. Greer Middle had to move twice.

The first move divided the student body and staff. Sixth and seventh grades were housed at the old Greer High School on North Main Street and the eighth grade was housed on a second floor wing of the new Greer High School on East Gap Creek Road three miles away. The principal traveled between schools daily. Assistant principals were assigned to each facility to handle administrative duties. The second move reunited everyone at the current location.

The new Greer Middle School building is located on 3032 East Gap Creek Road and opened in the fall of 1999.

- Facilities: During the school day, visitors can only access the school through our main office entrance. These doors and all other remaining doors are locked throughout the day. Visitors can only enter the main office or other parts of the building after they are admitted by school personnel.

Greer Middle School and Greer High School have campuses that are right next to one another, which is unique in Greenville County Schools. This has allowed the schools to easily communicate with one another regarding academic and behavioral questions and concerns, athletics, after school programs and events, parental involvement, etc.

In 2017-2018, all computer labs except for one were turned into regular academic classrooms as a result of our school community going 1 to 1 with Chromebooks for all students. Due to the increased interest in band, a second band classrooms was added in 2017-18. Additionally, orchestra, art, and chorus courses have their own classrooms. Greer Middle has nine science labs, three per grade level. All classrooms contain Interactive Promethean Boards. Our sports facilities consist of four tennis/basketball courts and baseball, softball, and soccer fields. The gym floor was replaced in Summer 2018

- Leadership:

Our Principal, Mr. Daniel Bruce, has led our school since 2015-16. Prior to becoming Principal of Greer Middle, Mr. Bruce served as an administrator at Hillcrest High School and Berea High School. Prior to entering administration, Mr. Bruce taught 7th grade Social Studies at Northwest Middle School. Our Administrative Assistant for the 6th grade, Mrs. Nicole Michel, has been a part of our administrative team since 2018. She has previously taught English at Mauldin Middle School and currently teaches English in GCS Virtual School.

Major Academic and Behavioral Features/Programs/Initiatives

Professional Learning Communities: Teachers meet weekly as a grade level, subject area PLC. At the beginning of the school year, each PLC set its own mission, vision, values, goals, and norms, which were also shared with the school's leadership team, to help guide their PLC work throughout the year. Each PLC used a shared PLC toolkit document that helped guide the teachers in working as an effective PLC and addressing the following four questions:

- What do we expect our students to learn?
- How will we know they are learning?

- How will we respond when our students do not learn?
- How will we respond if our students already know the content/excel at learning the content?

The use of a shared document that was also accessible by the school's leadership team promoted communication between teachers and the school's administrators, Instructional Coach, and Instructional Technology Interventionist.

Academic Teaming: Students are grouped in academic teams at the 6th, 7th, and 8th grade levels. Each grade level has three academic teams comprised of a Math, ELA, Science, and Social Studies teacher, one of whom was the Team Leader. Teams of teachers shared the same students in almost all cases at the 6th and 7th grade levels and in the majority of cases at the 8th grade level. Teachers met weekly with their academic team. At the beginning of the school year, each team set its own mission, vision, values, goals, and norms, which were also shared with the school's leadership team, to help guide their work throughout the year. Each team used a shared team toolkit document that helped guide the teachers in working as an effective team, which included sections for the team to focus on the following:

- Time for team members to check in with one another.
- What opportunities exist for interdisciplinary connections (vocab, etc.), activities, and/or projects?
- Avoiding overlapping test dates and project due dates
- Which students are struggling in more than one subject area? What interventions are in place to help these students become successful? What additional interventions are needed at this time?
- What student, team, or teacher successes have occurred? How can we celebrate this success?
- What issues exist that affect student learning, safety, etc? Classroom management concerns, hallway behavior, etc.
- What housekeeping needs to be addressed? Upcoming events, paperwork that needs to be completed, etc.

The use of a shared document that was also accessible by the school's leadership team promoted communication between teams and the school's administrators, Instructional Coach, and Instructional Technology Interventionist.

Vertical Department Meetings with Greer High School: In February 2019, all 8th Grade, Related Arts, Special Education, and ESOL teachers took part in a vertical meeting with the faculty of Greer High School. This vertical meeting focused on high school expectations, programs, and how middle school teachers can best work to prepare our students for the challenges and opportunities they will have at Greer High School.

Department Meetings: Each department is led by a department chair who led monthly meetings. These meetings are an opportunity to discuss best practices, new initiatives, vertical alignment, grade-level expectations, and upcoming opportunities and requirements.

Personalized Learning (1 to 1): Beginning with the 2017-18 school year, all students at Greer Middle school had access to a Dell Chromebook while at school. In addition, students take their Chromebook home with them for evenings and weekends. Teachers had the opportunity to integrate technology into daily lessons. Use of Chromebooks allowed for greater differentiation in teaching, additional means of assessing students both formatively and summatively, and increased means of students being able to demonstrate their knowledge and creatively.

Student of the Month Recognition: The Greer Middle School Student of the Month program provides a program for teachers to recognize students who demonstrate outstanding character. Teams and departments had the opportunity to nominate students based on the following character traits:

- Responsibility
- Caring
- Trustworthiness
- Teamwork
- Respect
- Kindness
- Giving
- Leadership

In total, 48 students had the opportunity to have breakfast with the principal and receive recognition for their excellent character.

Curriculum Council: Curriculum Council is a group of teacher leaders that meets monthly to advise the principal and discuss important matters related to student learning, school climate, and school initiatives. The Curriculum Council is made up of all team leaders, department chairs, administrators, and instructional support staff.

Upstate Writing Project: During the 2017-2018 school year, all ten of our school's ELA teachers took part in a series of inservice programs through the Upstate Writing Project. The Upstate Writing Project (UWP) is an official National Writing Project site. The National Writing Project (NWP) is a nationwide professional development program for teachers, begun in 1974 at the University of California, Berkeley. The primary goal of the project is to improve student writing achievement by improving the teaching of writing in the nation's schools. The Upstate Writing Project is supported by financial and professional resources of Clemson University and local school districts. In keeping with the National Writing Project model, UWP has the following primary goals:

- To improve students' writing abilities by improving the teaching and learning of writing in the nation's schools,
- Provide professional development programs for classroom teachers,
- Expand the professional roles of teachers.

Following this first year of implementation, all ELA teachers continued to utilize the instructional strategies learned during the Upstate Writing Project. Additionally, two ELA teachers from our school became instructors for the Upstate Writing Project and will be leaders for other schools that are implementing the program.

Benchmarking via MasteryConnect: During the 2017-2018, Greenville County Schools rolled out common District Benchmarks for state-tested areas through MasteryConnect. All teachers at Greer Middle were trained by the Instructional Coach in using MasteryConnect to track student mastery of State Standards. For Quarters 1, 2, and 3, students took Benchmarks created by TE21 in tested areas. The district found these Benchmarks to be over 90% correlated with student results on state tests during the previous school year. Our teachers were able to use the Benchmark data they received from TE21 to inform student instruction.

Teacher and Administrator Quality

Professional Development Plan

GOALS:

This professional development plan aims to improve student learning and achievement at Greer Middle School through a focus on:

- use of learning targets
- effective implementation of personalized learning (Chromebooks)
- instruction that is standards-based and data-driven
- Professional Learning Communities that focus on student learning
- Academic Team Meetings that focus on student learning and overall well-being
- Unit planning with GCS Academic Specialists

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS:

- How can we utilize learning targets to give students greater ownership of their learning?
- What are the best practices for student use of Chromebooks?
- How can we use data to drive instructional planning?
- How can we make learning more standards-based?
- In what ways can we collaborate as professionals in Professional Learning Communities to increase student learning, achievement, and well-being?
- How can we ensure we are unit planning using the GCS Instructional Protocol Model?

ANTICIPATED OUTCOMES:

- Teachers will create standards-based lessons with common pacing and common summative assessments that promote student engagement. Evidence of the following can be seen through walk throughs, formal observations, PLC conversations, PLC toolkit minutes, and weekly planners:
 - The learning target for the lesson is clearly communicated to students and lesson-sized
 - All students are communicating about what they know
 - Students are asking questions
 - Teachers are supporting students' ability to do for themselves
 - The vast majority of what students are writing involves summarizing, analyzing, evaluating, etc.
 - Students feel challenged by the learning process
 - Students can describe what they are learning to another person

- Teachers will use Chromebooks to increase student engagement and to gather data about mastery of the standards using standards-based formative and summative assessment. Evidence of this can be seen through walk throughs, formal observations, PLC conversations, and weekly planners.
- Teachers will work in collaborative groups and individually to look critically at student achievement on high-stakes tests as well as teacher-created formative and summative assessments. Analyzing available data, we will work in collaborative groups to develop effective instructional strategies that reach the needs of all of our students. Evidence of this will be shown through data analysis worksheets, data chats, PLC conversations, PLC toolkit minutes, walk throughs, formal observations, and test scores (including formative and summative assessment, quarterly benchmarks, and state testing).
- All core teachers will have a unit planning day to focus on planning using the GCS Instructional Protocol Model, ideally with the help and support of a GCS Academic Specialist
- Teachers will meet as academic teams to improve student outcomes. Evidence of the following will be seen through Team Meeting Toolkit minutes, team meeting conversations, walk throughs, and observations:
 - opportunities for interdisciplinary connections
 - scheduling best practices
 - students who need support and how to offer support
 - successes
