

GREER HIGH

Quick Answers to FAQ's You May Not Know

- IB is not just for students wanting to go to college outside of the US. It is for any student who wants a challenging, in-depth, but interesting and enjoyable group of classes that will prepare you for the rigors of college classes. IB courses incorporate the best practices for teaching and learning from around the world which is why it is called the International Baccalaureate program.
- Just like AP classes, most universities give college credit for IB classes. The IB Diploma courses do not prevent you from also taking AP courses.
- Taking the full IB diploma program is like adding a master's degree to your high school diploma.
- You don't need to take the full IB Diploma Program, you can just take certain courses that you are interested in and still get college credit for those courses.
- Senior IB students will culminate their experiences with a fall field trip to Atlanta, and a spring field trip to Washington, DC.
