mjacobs@greenville.k12.sc.us
3. All applications must be postmarked by March 1, 2019.
4. The Greenville High School Student Council will review all applications and select three-five finalists to present to the council. Applicants not selected will be notified at this time.
5. The finalists will be contacted regarding an interview with the Greenville High School Student Council.
6. The presentations will be made at the beginning of April. Applicants will be notified by May 3, 2019 about the final selection.
7. The amount collected will be announced at the JL Mann football game the Friday of Spirit Week, in the fall of 2019. The actual check will be presented at a later date. A small portion of the money collected goes back into GHS with the remaining portion going to the charity chosen by Student Council.
8. Please contact Marion Jacobs via email with any further questions.

9. We respectfully ask that your organization not reach out directly to any students after you have submitted this application. As part of the class's curriculum, the students spend a significant amount of class time researching, presenting and discussing each organization before ultimately deciding on the best fit for Spirit Week. If students are contacted directly during the process then we reserve the right to remove your organization from consideration.
