

Mauldin Parents/Students/Community;

Last night, the Greenville County School Board officially approved my appointment at Mauldin High School. I cannot begin to describe the excitement that this opportunity provides for me and my family.

My wife and I are graduates of Greenville County Schools (Eastside). My oldest daughter will be a sophomore at JL Mann High School and my youngest daughter will be a 7th grader at Beck Academy. So not only will I travel this journey as Principal of Mauldin High School, in many ways I am going through this journey with you as a parent as well.

I come to Mauldin High School as the former Principal of Greer Middle IB School, where I have served since 2008. Prior to my position at Greer Middle, I served as an Assistant Principal at Dorman High School in Spartanburg and previous to that as an Instructional Coach at Pendleton High School in Anderson. My entire teaching career in the classroom was at the high school level.

I really enjoyed my time as Principal of Greer Middle School and I am very proud of the accomplishments that we were able to achieve over those 5 years. Recently, however, I began to feel the “tug” of returning to the high school level that I had been a part of during my first 13 years as an educator. There is something special about being at a high school, where school and community pride is the cornerstone of everything that goes on in and out of the building.

The opportunity to work at Mauldin High School is truly a dream come true. Mauldin is an excellent school with tremendous faculty, staff, students, and parents. I am amazed at all of the wonderful accomplishments that I see and hear when talking to the stakeholders of Mauldin. To be a part of that environment is exciting to me, and I know that together we will be able ensure that Mauldin High School is the flagship high school of Greenville County.

I look forward to meeting you in next few months as we prepare for the opening of school. In the meantime, please consider visiting the MHS Web site for updates throughout the summer.
