SICK OR NOT SICK?

When a child is not feeling well, parents face uncertainty about whether to send him or her to school.

The decision not only affects the family with the child who does not feel well, but also the families of the students who may be exposed to a sick child who is sent to school. Here are some guidelines that will help parents know. Following these guidelines will help reach the goal of keeping everyone as healthy as possible.

PTA MEETING AND VETERANS DAY PROGRAM MONDAY

Join everyone Monday for a PTA meeting and a Veterans Day program! The PTA meeting will begin at 6:15 pm in the school cafeteria. The meeting will be followed by a Veterans Day Musical Salute presented by fourth grade students. The book fair will also be open for special hours that night from 5:30 - 7:30 pm. See you there!

PTA REFLECTIONS ENTRIES DUE NOW!

Forget to turn in your entry Friday? Bring it on Monday! For more information about the Reflection program, contact Katie Epps at katieepps@yahoo.com.

FALL BOOK FAIR NEXT WEEK!

Monday-Friday, November 11-15 in the media center!

Monday-Thursday 7:45 am - 3:45 pm

Friday 7:45 am - 10:00 am

The book fair will also be open on Monday night during the PTA meeting, November 11, from 5:30-7:30 pm for Family Night. Online ordering will also be available.

Volunteers are needed to help with setup on November 8, help with book fair during the day Monday-Friday, November 11-15, and help during the PTA meeting Monday night, November 11. Sign up at: www.signupgenius.com/go/805084CA8A92BA5FF2-20191. Thank you!

GUIDELINES

- To come to school, students must be fever-free for 24 hours without medication. A fever is a temperature of 100.4 or greater.
- Students who have been vomiting or who have diarrhea should not be sent to school until they are symptom-free for 24 hours.
- When in doubt, it is better to err on the side of safety.

If you have questions, please contact Nurse Donna Williams (355-4267 or dlwillia@greenville.k12.sc.us).
