Approval of Minutes

September Minutes: Approved by Catherine Schumacher & Tiffany Walsh

PTA School of Excellence Data Collection – Sarah Frick

- Fantastic response rate: 457 responses
 - Overall extremely positive responses
 - Top strengths:
 - Families feel welcomed and respected
 - Sterling communicates clearly and responsively
 - Questions with high “unknown” responses – communication on this could be improved?
 - Community Partners provide useful services for my family in our school building
 - Community Partners provide services that are supportive of families from my culture
 - Community Partners help families improve their own educational level
 - Connect the School with Community Partners: Do family and school teachers work closely with community organizations, businesses and institutions of higher learning?

Community Engagement Committee – Chloe McGoogin

Partners with local organizations and businesses to bring resources and opportunities into the school. Its efforts help connect students and families with the wider community for enrichment and support

- Committee volunteers: Allison Champion-Wescott, Christy Guth, Randolyn Harmon, Chloe McGoogin, Tiffany Walsh
 - Discussion on how to amp up: Highlight community partners in Griffins Connect and offer way for readers to suggest/add, partner with PTA
 - Need to differentiate between types of support SIC vs. PTA offers (service vs. funds), recognition would highlight what organization does vs. provides
 - Possible partnership with Kindness Accelerator, a local non-profit organization with a mission to 'teach, inspire, and mobilize intentional kindness in our community and around the world'?
 - Connection exists w/Nutrition and Engagement with SC State Research and Extension, conduct search for interested parents to proceed with forming a girls club to mirror the B2M program

2024-2025 SIC Initiatives Update

- Family Engagement Task Force – Katie Stutz
 - Looking at pairing buddy meeting with an event
 - Somewhat lackluster response to recent overtures, committee looking at how to move forward
 - Recycling/green team, Take Action SC – Liene Kukainis
 - Deborah Foulkes coordinating, moving forward with starting club
 - Safe Routes to School from LiveWell – Sarah Frick

Community Partner Updates

- Nicholtown Child & Family Collaborative – Randolyn Harmon
 - Thank you for the $5,000 received from Sterling for Nicholtown families
