

Have you moved?

Proof of Residency requires at least two documents from the following list:

- Current electric and/or gas bill displaying service address and a billing date within past 30 days (you can bring 2 utility bills)
- Closing statement or current mortgage statement for primary residence showing property address (not mailing address)
- Current signed lease agreement with name and phone of landlord
- Most recent state or federal income tax return
- Current paid tax receipt on real estate owned by parent/legal guardian
- Property tax form requesting homestead exemption
- Current statement from DSS or other governmental agency which proves residency of the parent/legal guardian
- Current paycheck stub with address of residence