2020–2021 School Calendars Released

The 2020-21 Student calendars have been released. Students will start the new school year on Monday, August 17, 2020. Their final day of class will be Friday, June 4, 2021. The Superintendent determines the school calendar after receiving recommendations from the Calendar Committee, which receives input from parent groups and school faculties. The recommendations are also based on State requirements and factors such as required testing dates set by the State Department of Education. The Calendar Committee is comprised of parents, teachers, principals, and staff. More information is available here.

AP Review Day

Greenville County School District will be hosting AP Review Day on April 25 from 9:00 AM to 1:05 PM. This day is open to all AP students in the district. Students register HERE! The deadline to register is April 9, 2020. Thank you for helping us support our AP Programs in GCSD!

Attribute of a General– Work Ethic

Work ethic is the belief that diligent and consistent hard work can strengthen your character and improve individual abilities. It is a set of values possessed that are centered on the importance of working as hard as you can on what you put your mind to. Having a strong work ethic is an important part of being successful in your school, work, sport, or career. Ways to create or improve your work ethic include forming good habits, staying motivated, and finishing tasks immediately.

Work ethic is important in defining your identity. It becomes part of who you are, and there is no doubt that a huge part of how people will view and know you will come from what they perceive to be your work ethic. A good work ethic tops many hiring managers want list when they are interviewing and seeking employees. It's not what you do, but how you do your job that is the most important.

A popular work ethic quote reads "Hard work beats talent, when talent doesn't work hard."
